IVAN EXPLORER

DISCOVERY KIDS / PRINT, PLAY & DISCOVER

Halloween Cupcakes

Color, Count & Create!

7 activities + an Explorer award

A friendly creative adventure for ages 3-7.

This book belongs to: _____

US Letter / American English

Let's get creative!

Choose a page and enjoy a little Halloween adventure together.

Inside your book

03 My monster cupcake

04 Pumpkin patterns

05 A little bat baker

06 A ghostly treat

07 Count the cupcakes

08 Your cupcake design

09 A Halloween cupcake party

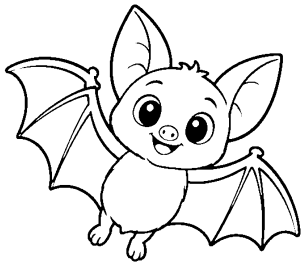

10 Your Explorer award

For grown-ups

Print on US Letter, in portrait, at 100% / Actual size. If edges are clipped, choose Fit. Select just the pages you want; the activity pages work in black and white.

Use pencils, crayons or washable markers. The color cover is optional. Let your child choose colors, add marks and tell a story at their own pace.

For younger children, try one large picture. Count together on page 7. No cutting is needed.

My monster cupcake

Color the icing, candy eyes and paper case. Add some sprinkles.

Talk together: what does your friendly cupcake look like?

Pumpkin patterns

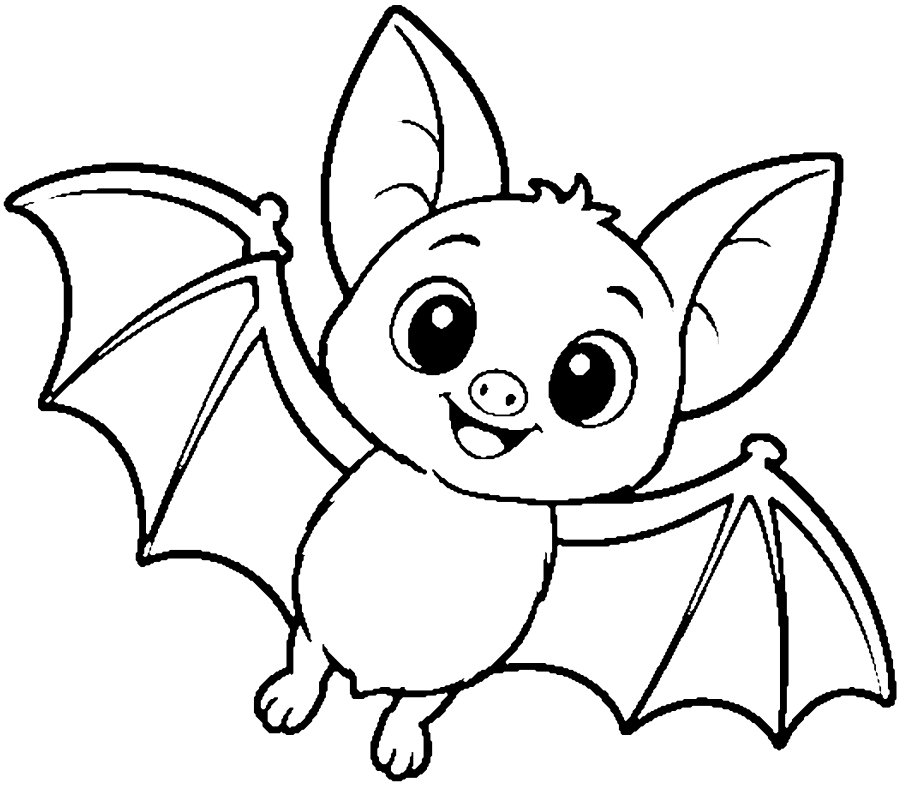

Color the pumpkin. Add spots, stripes or zigzags to its sections.

My pumpkin is called: _____

A little bat baker

Color the bat and its treat. Draw a sprinkle trail between them.

Talk together: point to the two wings. How does a bat move?

A ghostly treat

Color the scarf, compass and cupcake. Give the ghost a name.

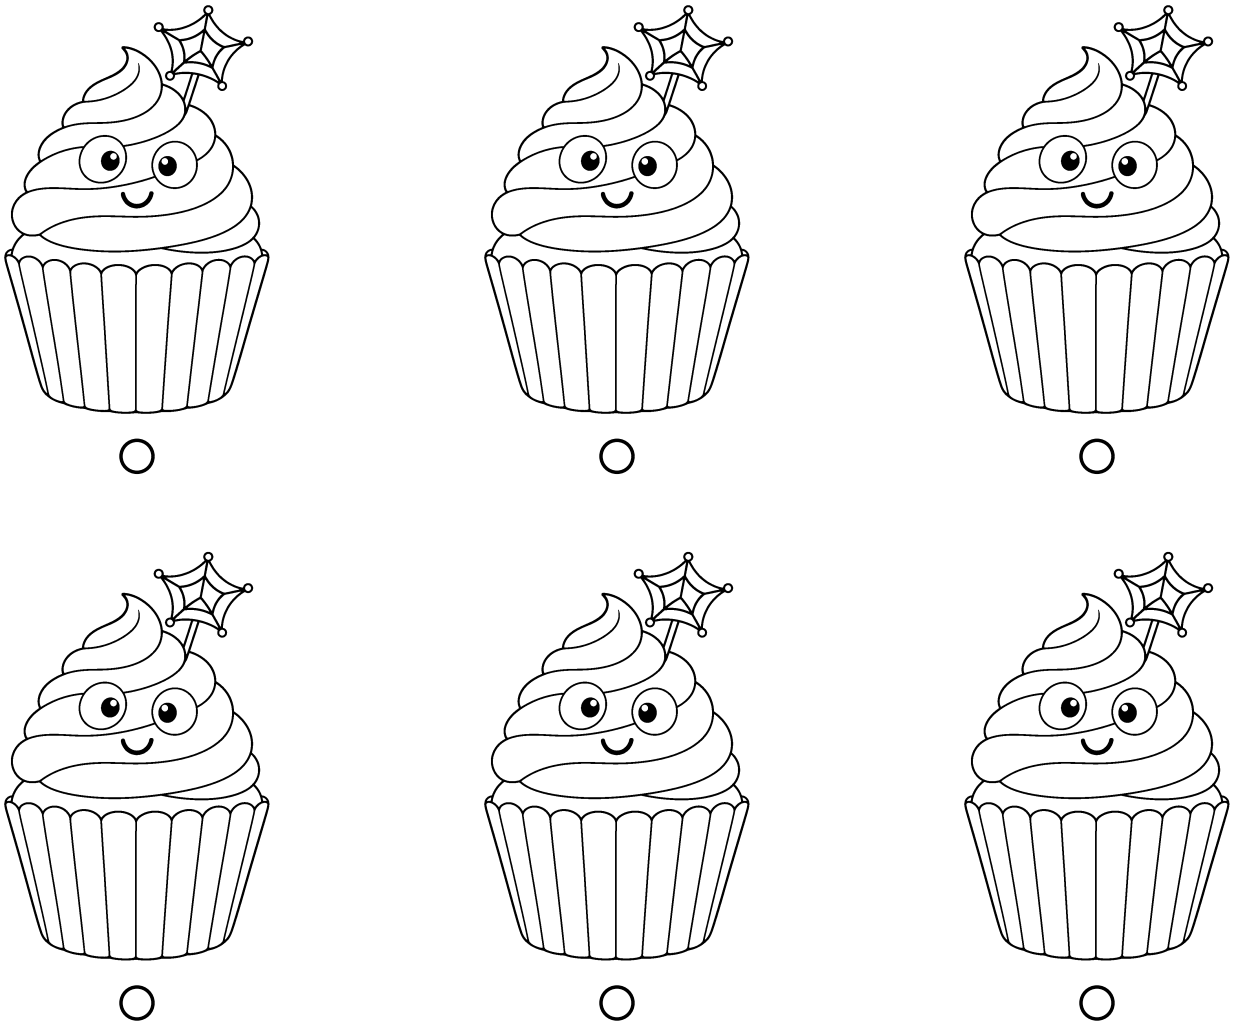

My ghost is called: _____

Count the cupcakes

Count each cupcake once. Color its little counting dot as you go.

How many cupcakes?

Say the total aloud. Write it, or ask a grown-up to help.

Your cupcake design

Invent a new icing pattern. Draw your own toppings around the swirl.

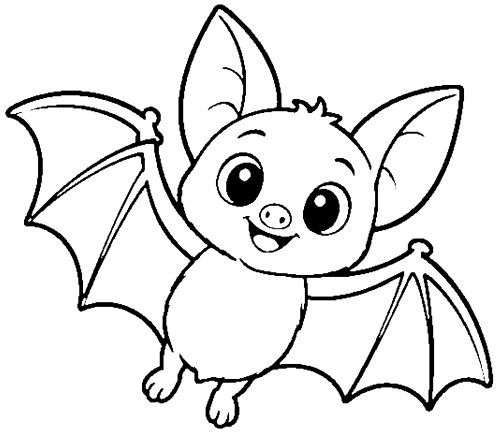

My creation is called: _____

Tell someone about the toppings and patterns you chose.

A Halloween cupcake party

Color the friends. Add party hats, decorations or another little treat.

Tell a tiny story: who came to your cupcake party?

Well done, Explorer!

Color your trophy. Celebrate what you tried today.

Halloween Cupcake Explorer

Awarded to: _____

My favorite page was: _____

I enjoyed: _____

Date: _____

Keep exploring. Every picture can be different!